

Graphic info:

The slide features a light gray background. On the left, the text "Vocabulary Unit 3" is written in a large, bold, dark purple font. Below this text is a small right-pointing arrow and a light pink rounded rectangular button containing the text "Ms.Dove". To the right of the text is a stack of three books: a red one on top with "GODFATHER" on the spine, a yellow one in the middle with "Into the" on the spine, and a green one at the bottom. Above the books is a pink speech bubble containing a white heart. In the bottom right corner of the slide, there is a small video inset of a woman with glasses and a gray shirt.

Navigation:

Slide advances by user
NEXT = Word "Communicate"

Reviewer comments:

Audio:

Hello class, today, we will start with Unit 3. My name is Ms. Dove. Let's start with the first vocabulary!

Graphic info:

Communicate (v)

/kə'mju:ni.keɪt/

exchange information by using writing,
speaking, moving body, and signals

EX: Through the internet, we can communicate with people on the other side of the world

→ Communicative (adj)

Navigation:

Slide advances by user
NEXT = Word "Lull"

Reviewer comments:

Audio:

Here we can see there are two people talking to each other. In other word, they are communicating. Communicate, please repeat. Communicate is a verb, means to exchange information by using writing, speaking, signals or body movements. For example, Through the internet, we can communicate with people on the other side of the world.

Graphic info:

Lull (v)
/lʌl/
cause someone to feel that they want to sleep.
EX: My grandma used to lull me to sleep when I was young.

→ Lullaby (n)

Navigation:

Slide advances by user
NEXT = Word "Delight"

Reviewer comments:

Audio:

Here when you look at the picture, the father is singing so that his daughter can go to sleep easier. We call the action when singing for sb to go to sleep is to lull. Again, Lull! For example, my grandma used to lull me to sleep when I was young. The song we use to lull is called Lullaby.

Graphic info:

Delight (n)
/dɪ'laɪt/
a feeling of great pleasure, very joyful and glad.
EX: I read your letter with great delight.

→ Delight (v)
Delight + with

Navigation:

Slide advances by user
NEXT = Thanks

Reviewer comments:

Audio:

Ok, the next word, in this picture, all people are very happy, they are all smiling. Happiness is delight. Delight is the feeling of great pleasure, very joyful and glad. For example, I read your letter with great delight. So we also have the verb "to delight sb" means to make them happy. Remember, delight with sth.

Graphic info:

Navigation:

Slide advances by user

Reviewer comments:

Audio:

This is the end of our lesson today. Please remember to note these vocabulary and do the assignment in LMS.